++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Another quite cloudy day, with breezy winds.

Today:
A cloudy day across the region, with occasional bright or sunny spells. While dry for most, the odd isolated shower is likely at times, largely for southern and western areas. Breezy winds throughout, especially for exposed locations. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Tonight:
Any lingering daytime showers soon ease through the early evening. Going overnight, rain moves into Cumbria before progressing southwards across the region, affecting all through the early hours. Winds strengthening. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Tuesday:
Another quite cloudy day for all, with overnight rain clearing southeastwards and easing through the morning. Drier in the afternoon but feeling cool throughout. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Staying cloudy through this period, with only occasional bright or sunny spells. Patchy rain or drizzle remains likely, largely for coasts and hills. Heavier rain arrives late Friday.
